LABOR RECRUITING
UNCLE SAM'S JOB

Need of Centralization Seen by Assistant Secretary of Labor Post.

RESERVES MUST BE CREATED

Government Must Monopolize Employment Agencies of Country in Order to Equalize Supply and Demand in Different Sections, Declares Official.

Long before the war the late Dr. Charles R. Henderson, who made a deep study of unemployment, advocated centralization of the means of keeping workers engaged. A somewhat similar idea is now voiced by Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor. Writing in the New York Mail, Mr. Post makes the suggestion that competition for workers at least in war time must be erased if present needs are to be met.

It is the duty of the labor department, he remarks, to recruit the industrial army that sustains the military army. He declares that the employment service of the department of labor has enlisted hundreds of thousands of men who are turning out a steady stream of ships, shell and cannon, as well as foodstuffs and clothing for our armies. "At present," he continues, "more than a hundred thousand a month are being actually placed by it in war industries, and the number is increasing at such a rate that within a very short time the monthly number will be more than doubled. Every possible kind of position is being filled. Clerks, skilled mechanics, laborers, draftsmen, ship carpenters and calkers, managers, machinists and dozens of other occupations find their places in the roll. The versatility of the service is shown in its recent success in raising a motor mechanics' regiment of 7,000 men."

"These great numbers refer only to those actually placed. In many industries there is no present possibility of employing all the men available. Great reserves are therefore being built up. These consist of lists of men who have volunteered to serve in certain capacities, where they are not needed at present, but where the industrial expansion will provide places for them later on. For instance, a gigantic reserve of shipbuilders, 250,000 in all, has been enrolled.

"Shipbuilding, however, creates only a small part of the demand, food production being equally important. A great system of farm agencies is also at work in the United States employment service. Seventy-six thousand postmasters are co-operating in another recruiting drive and a reserve of 250,000 boys between sixteen and twenty-one is also being created. And so this great work goes on.

"Seven men are required in industry for every man in military uniform. As time goes on it becomes increasingly apparent that industrial recruiting during the war must be done by the government alone. The fullness of competitive employment agencies is shown by a recent happening. A private employment establishment in Detroit hired in behalf of a Pittsburgh employer a large number of machinists and arranged for their transportation to the Pennsylvania city. On the journey the train which brought them to Pittsburgh passed another going from Pittsburgh to Detroit carrying nearly an equal number of machinists to the Michigan city.

"The government must monopolize the employment agencies of the country. The organization which handles the problem must be national, big enough to cover the whole country and balance state against state, filling deficits in one from surpluses in another. There is only one organization in the country big enough and national enough to do this. That organization is the United States government. It alone possesses the ability, the breadth, the authority and the confidence of the public."

FROM ALL PARTS OF TENNESSEE

Reports of Interesting Events Boiled Down for Hasty Perusal.

Nashville.—The open season for doves in Tennessee is Sept. 1 to Dec. 1 and not from Aug. 15 to Jan. 1, as it has been in the past.

Memphis.—Merchants, bankers and planters from all southern states gathered here to attend the war convention of the Cotton States Merchants' association, which held sessions August 21 and 22.

Jackson.—The Jackson Trades and Labor Council plans a mammoth celebration at the West Tennessee fair grounds on Labor Day, all the proceeds going to the local chapter of the Red Cross Society.

Knoxville.—Eight arrests have been made by members of the provost guard here in their crusade against selling whisky to soldiers. Two have been bound over to the federal grand jury. Other arrests will follow.

Jackson.—"The Farm Woman's War Work" will be a subject for much discussion at the annual meeting of the woman's branch of the West Tennessee farmers' institute, which will convene here Sept. 3, 4 and 5.

Lexington.—Rev. W. A. Gaugh has resigned the care of the Baptist church at Louisa, Ky., where he has been pastor for a term of years, and has returned to this section, where he is doing evangelistic work.

Dyersburg.—Two letters were received here last week from Sergt. Jack Todd, who was reported killed in action July 19, his mother having received a telegram on July 21 advising her of his death. The letters were dated July 23, and conveyed the information that though injured and in a hospital, he expected to be in line soon. This later news was received here with much joy. Sergt. Todd went to France with the first contingent of U. S. Marines.

Louisville, Ky.—Among the 19 graduates of the first army school for chaplains and approved chaplain candidates at Camp Zachary Taylor, West Frank Carl Shirley, Presbyterian, U. S. A. Knoxville; Roy Hamilton Biser, Disciples, Nashville; Charles Edgar Wauford, Baptist (South), Covington; Noah Wellington Williams A. M. E., Clarksville; Blair Theodore Hunt, National Baptist, Memphis. Each was commissioned a lieutenant in the United States army.

Chattanooga.—Conflict has arisen here between officers who have been active in an effort to intercept liquor coming into Chattanooga and the officials of the terminal station and the Pullman company. Orders have been issued by the Pullman company to its conductors and other employees not to permit the wholesale searching of suit cases belonging to passengers in transit or those whose destination is Chattanooga.

Nashville.—Gov. Rye on the recommendation of the supreme court has pardoned R. G. Rathor, convicted in Shelby county of grand larceny. Rathor had in his possession property belonging to another which he had bought from a third party with no knowledge of how the third party had obtained possession of the property other than legitimately. This fact was not established in the trial and Rathor was convicted.

Deputy Auditors Ware and Puryear returned from Brushy Mountain, where they checked up the accounts at the prison. Auditor Anderson and Deputy Puryear left for Memphis to audit the books of the West Tennessee Normal.

Conductor James E. Shriver added to the list of dead as a result of a freight train headed for Nashville from the Old Hickory powder plant August 18. Shriver is the third victim of the wreck, Engineer N. G. Terry and Fireman Ernest Smith having been killed instantly.

The wreck occurred on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad about 12 miles from this city, when the engine, pulling 45 empty cars, but taking only one car with it, dropped through the trestle into creek about 50 feet below.

Every industry and manufactory in Tennessee which is now equipped or which can be rapidly and easily equipped to produce goods, articles and other essentials of war, needed by the United States government, has been requested to do so by W. E. Myer, state fuel administrator. His plan to speed up the production of war material in the state is heartily endorsed by the Tennessee Manufacturers' association.

Lexington.—A large and enthusiastic Red Cross Society was organized at Seville.

RUSSIA WILL RE-ENTER WAR

SAYS KERENSKY, FORMER PROVISIONAL PREMIER OF RUSSIA, BOUND FOR UNITED STATES.

To Seek Aid For Slaves in Repelling Teutons—Front Is Only Pushed Back, He Asserts, and His People Again Are To Be Worthy Allies.

London.—Alexander Kerensky, former Provisional Premier of Russia, arrived in London, is on his way to the United States. Kerensky reached London incognito. Since then he has moved about quietly, though busily, conferring with prominent Russians in England over the necessity of Entente Allied assistance in Russia. He expects to go to America shortly. His health is bad and those who have seen him say he has gone through remarkable adventures in escaping from Russia and in his journey to England.

The presence of M. Kerensky in London, of course, is known to the British Government, as it is impossible under the present strict passport regulations for any alien to enter the country without the Government knowing of it. Kerensky was introduced to the British Labor conference here this afternoon and was received by the delegates with loud cheers. He told the labor conference delegates: "I have just come straight from Moscow and it is my duty as a statesman and a Socialist to tell you and the people of the world that the Russian people, the Russian democracy, are fighting against tyranny. I believe, indeed I am certain," added the former Premier, "that the Russian people will shortly join you in the fight for the great cause of freedom."

Consumers of Sugar Hit Hard.

Columbus, O.—Described as far more drastic than any previous rules, new sugar regulations have been issued. Retail grocers, all public eating places, including boarding houses who take care of 25 persons or more, bakers, as well as candy makers, soft drink manufacturers and commercial canners can not buy sugar after July 1, except upon certificate which they must secure from the Federal Food Administration. The new rules require them to show how much sugar they have on hand and restrict them as to the amount they can purchase and use.

Great Blow Struck For World Liberty.

Washington.—President Wilson sent a cablegram to General Diaz, commanding the Italian army, congratulating him upon the victory over the Austrians and saying America feels a great blow has been struck, not only for Italy but for the world. The President's message follows: "Please accept my warm congratulations on the splendid successes of the armies under your command. The whole spirit of America acclaims the achievement and feels that a very great blow has been struck for the liberties not only of Italy, but of the world."

Opposed to Extension of Draft Limit.

Washington.—Opposition of the Administration to proposals before the senate for immediate extension of the selective draft-age limits, voiced by Secretary Baker and General March, Chief of Staff, before the Senate Military Committee, apparently served to increase the senate controversy over an amendment by Senator Fall, of New Mexico, to the $12,000,000,000 army appropriation bill, proposing that the age limits be 20 and 40, instead of 21 and 31 years.

Former D. A. R. President Arrested.

New York.—Mrs. William Cumming Story, former President-General of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was arrested here on indictments charging her with grand larceny, petty larceny and conspiracy in connection with the affairs of the National Emergency Relief Society, of which she is President.

Extensions To Training Stations.

Washington.—Extensions to naval training stations by additional construction, Secretary Daniels announced will include accommodations for 12,000 additional men at the Great Lakes Training Station, near Chicago; barracks for 10,000 men at Norfolk, 10,000 at Newport, R. I., and 2,000 at Pelham Bay, N. Y.

Two Men Killed; Five Injured.

Buckhannon, W. Va.—Two men were killed and five were injured, two perhaps fatally, in a boiler explosion at a sawmill of the Alton Lumber Co., at Shelbyville, Upshur county. The explosion destroyed the portable sawmill.

First Run Made to Valparaiso.

Washington.—The first American steamer assigned by the Shipping Board to the newly established route between New York and Valparaiso has arrived at the Chilean port, reducing the usual time from 27 to 18 days.

Paris Names Street For President.

Paris.—The Municipal Council of Paris decided to change the name of Avenue Trocadero to that of "Avenue President Wilson." Street signs bearing the new name will be placed in position on the Fourth of July.

Would Be Wise Move.

The government may soon carry its new war industries to localities where there are ample labor and housing facilities rather than draw labor to remote places, and have to build houses for them.

This new policy was urged on the war industries board by the United States labor department, which, at the same time, offered its services in picking favorable localities.
